Confucius Institute at George Mason University sponsors

Cross-Cultural Perspectives and Dialogues:
Ethics and Values between the East and West

YOU ARE INVITED TO A LIVE DIALOGUE!

Co-hosted by INTO Mason and School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution

Wednesday, April 13th
1:00pm-2:30pm
Gold Room
Johnson Center
(Underground Floor)

Dr. Patricia Maulden and students from the School of Conflict Analysis and Resolution will lead students in discussion on the following questions:

- What are important differences between Eastern and Western ethics?
- How do these ethics contribute to global cooperation or cultural conflict?

Faculty hosts:
Dr. Peter Stearns
Provost Emeritus, Professor of History
Dr. Young Chan Ro
Professor of Asian Religions

RSVP by Friday April 8th, 2016 by email to Confucius Institute (cimason@gmu.edu)

Join us, share your perspectives, and exchange your opinions with other students from difference countries all over the world.

FOOD and BEVERAGE will be served during the dialogue.