

Confucius Institute at George Mason University

sponsors

Cross-Cultural Perspectives and Dialogues:

A Variety of Learning Styles

Co-hosted by
INTO Mason

Thursday, October 6

11:30am - 12:20pm

Room Salon A (1302A)
Global Center
Fairfax Campus

You will participate in a discussion and share your opinions and stories on

- What are your learning styles?
- Where do you think your learning styles come from?
- What would you suggest to instructors to better accommodate your learning styles?

Faculty Moderator:

Dr. Beverly Shaklee

Professor; Director, Center for International Education;
Director, Division of Advanced Professional Teacher
Development and International Education
College of Education and Human Development

YOU ARE INVITED TO A LIVE DIALOGUE!

PIZZA and BEVERAGE will be served during the dialogue.

RSVP by Friday September 30th, 2016 by email to Confucius Institute (cievent@gmu.edu)

Join us, share your perspectives, and exchange your opinions with other students from different countries all over the world.

This event will begin at 11:30am sharp, so please be on time!

Office of Global Strategy

INTO GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY