Chinese Language Through the Arts
Summer Camp

July 18 – 29, 2011
2011 Program Highlights:

• Experienced Chinese language instructors, selected by the Confucius Institute
• Hands-on learning through songs, dancing, painting, and calligraphy
• Low student to teacher ratio
• Learning experiences tailored to the skills and interests of the students
• Student helpers FROM China
• A fun, art-filled exploration of the Chinese language and culture
• Motivation to continue Chinese language studies
• New friends who share an interest in Chinese language and culture
Chinese Character
Kungfu Greeting
Chinese Red Ribbon Dance
Learning Numbers
We hope that all of the participants had a great time at this year’s camp.
We look forward to seeing you again next year!