

Your mission

To learn all you can about China so that you can teach your friends and family about this ancient culture.

Your route

Traveling from Beijing to the Silk Road, from the northern grasslands to the southern tropics, you will see scenes from daily life of people young and old.

Your guides

Photographers from around the world, ranging from high school students to professionals, will guide you as they share their insightful images of China.

Acknowledgements

The Confucius Institute at Mason wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all the photographers who have supported the Confucius Institute by contributing these insightful photographic images which made this exhibition possible.

Confucius Institute at Mason

Established in 2009 as a partnership between George Mason University and the Beijing Language and Culture University, the Confucius Institute at Mason seeks to further understanding about Chinese language and culture through classes and educational outreach programs offered at local universities, schools and community organizations in northern Virginia.

Contact us

Confucius Institute at Mason
East Building, Room 129
George Mason University
4400 University Drive, MS 6D9
Fairfax, Virginia 22031
Tel: 703-993-7780
Fax: 703-993-7011
confucius.gmu.edu

我看中国 China In My Eyes Photography Exhibition

Wang Jing

Student Expedition Guide

Embark upon your virtual trip to China

August 12 – October 7, 2013
Verizon Galleries, NOVA Annandale Campus

As you travel through this exhibit

Create your China journal

这些照片有什么重复模式？
What recurring patterns do you notice in these photos?

这些现代生活的场景有什么儒家痕迹？
What echoes of Confucian thought can you find in these scenes of modern Chinese life?

你觉得照片表现了中国的现实吗？为什么？
Do you think these photos show what it's really like to live in China? Why?

看过这些照片，你不想去中国？为什么？
Do these photos make you want to visit China? Why or why not?

这些照片改变你对中国的看法了吗？为什么？
Have these photos changed your views on China? Why or why not?

关于美国的摄影展会包括什么？
What would you include in a photo exhibit about the U.S.?

Congratulations! You have completed your virtual journey to China. Please go to Room 202F for an official stamp.

