

CHINA TOWN HALL

Local Connections, National Reflections

Presented by
The National Committee on U.S.-China Relations and
George Mason University

With generous support from the Provost's Office, the Office of Global Strategy, the College of Humanities & Social Sciences (CHSS), University Life, the Department of History & Art History, the Center for Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (CAPEC), the Global Affairs Program (GLOA), and the Confucius Institute at George Mason University

Can China Move 250 Million People Into Cities?

Live Webcast

Jimmy Carter

39th President of the United States;
University Distinguished Professor,
Emory University;
Nobel Peace Prize Laureate

Local Guest Speaker

Weiping Wu

Professor & Chair, Dept. of Urban & Environmental Policy & Planning,
Tufts University;
Senior Fellow, Council for Emerging Market Enterprises, Fletcher School of Law & Diplomacy, Tufts University

China's rapid development directly impacts the lives of just about everyone in the United States. CHINA Town Hall is a national day of programming, involving more than 70 cities around the world, to give Americans the opportunity to discuss critical issues of concern with leading China experts.

Time and Location:

Thursday, October 16, 2014 Reception and Refreshments at 6:15 pm Presentations begin at 6:50 pm	George Mason University Mason Global Center (old Mason Inn), Salon A 4400 University Drive, Fairfax, VA 22030
--	--

CHINA Town Hall: Local Connections, National Reflections is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Michael Chang, Assoc. Professor of History, at mchang5@gmu.edu.

