

Special Lecture

November 13, 2014

Chinese Characters, Letters and Art Design

Prof. Dongwei Zhai, assistant professor at the College of Art, Henan University, China is currently a visiting scholar at the George Mason University School of Arts.

As a designer and painter of Chinese brush painting, Prof. Zhai will discuss integrating Chinese characters as elements in art and design. This lecture is offered in conjunction with the upcoming exhibition, Characters, Letters and Art Design. Art submissions are being accepted until November 20, 2014.

Lecture	Integrating Chinese Characters into Art and Design
Speaker	Prof. Dongwei Zhai
Time	Thursday, Nov. 13, 2014 from 7:30pm-8:30pm
Place	Art and Design Building, AB 1007, George Mason

Organized by

Confucius Institute

Tel: 703-993-7780

cimason@gmu.edu

<http://confucius.gmu.edu>

Printmakers Guild

School of Arts

<http://gmuprintmakersguild.wordpress.com>

AIGA GMU Student Group

<http://aigagmu.org/>

Fly by Janis Sweeney